DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

Harrisburg, Pa.

March 15, 1925.

Honorable F. P. Willits,
Secretary of Agriculture,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I herewith transmit data in the form of a directory of stallions and jacks enrolled with the Bureau of Animal Industry and licensed to stand for public service for the period commencing January 1st, 1924 and ending December 31st, 1924.

The stallions and jacks are classified as Sound—Very Highly Com-mended, Sound—Approved and Unsound—Licensed.

Comparative tables show the breed, classification and number of stallions licensed. The list has been arranged by counties giving breed, name and registry number of stallion or jack with name and address of owner.

There are ten different breeds represented; the Percheron with one hundred sixty-nine licensed predominating. The next most popular breed was the Belgian with fifty-one, followed by the Shire and Standardbred with seven each.

The information contained in this directory is of value to mare owners and others interested in horse breeding and I recommend that it be published as a bulletin for distribution.

Respectively yours,

T. E. MUNCE,

Director, Bureau of Animal Industry.

State Veterinarian.

PENNSYLVANIA STALLION LAW AS AMENDED

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That every person,^{* Registration and licensing.} firm, or company, standing or traveling any stallion or jack for breeding purposes in the State, shall cause the name, description and pedigree of such stallion or jack to be enrolled by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture and procure a license certificate from said bureau, which shall thereupon be presented to and recorded by the prothonotary of the county or counties in which said stallion or jack is used for public service. HOW TO OBTAIN LICENSE TO STAND STALLION OR JACK FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

Forward to the office of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Harrisburg, Pa., the following:

1. Application. Giving name, description, registry number, certificate of veterinary examination.
2. Certificate of pedigree and official transfer certificates to date.
3. Ten dollar ($10.00) fee.

All stallion-jack license certificates expire December 31st of each year.

It is illegal to use or offer for use grade or scrub stallions or jacks for public service in the following states: Pennsylvania, Michigan, North Dakota, New York, Iowa, Indiana and Minnesota.

TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP IMPORTANT

It is very important to record the ownership of each stallion or jack with the respective Breed Record Association in which they are eligible. A license certificate to stand for Public Service cannot be issued for a stallion or jack unless they are properly identified by submitting for inspection the studbook certificate of the registry of the pedigree or an official transfer certificate signed by the Secretary of the Breed Record Association showing the ownership is properly recorded.

The pedigree of the progeny of pure bred stallions or jacks cannot be recorded with Breed Record Associations unless all transfers of ownership of both sire and dam are properly recorded to date. Stallioners often pay as much money for a good stallion or jack as would buy a town property and it is just as important that they properly identify and record the ownership of the stallion or jack as it would be to have the property title cleared and recorded.

Application blanks and certificates of veterinary examination are distributed annually to stallion-jack owners. Extra blanks can be obtained by writing to the Bureau of Animal Industry, Harrisburg.

It is urgently requested that owner of stallions or jacks procure their license certificates early in the year so that the name of the stallion and owner's address can be listed in the annual Directory.

The horse breeding industry seems to have reached its zero. There are not enough horses raised within the State to supply local demands. More concerted and individual attention should be given to horse breeding in Pennsylvania. There is a big demand for sound heavy draft horses and mules. Hunters, saddlers, standardbred harness and thoroughbred race horses, sound of good type and quality, find ready sale at high prices.
